

Judaism websites

Board of Deputies of British Jews (protects, supports and defends the interests, religious rights and customs of Jews in the United Kingdom and promotes the development of the Jewish community in Britain)

British Jewish Network (Brijnet offers information about UK Jewish congregations and Associations, Shabbat times, Israel, books, and news)

HanuKat (American website, story of Hanukkah, songs, recipes; teaching resources)

Jewish.co.uk (claims to be 'the No 1 destination for all things Jewish')

Jewish Holidays & Festivals on the Net (American Jewish website includes Rosh Hashanah, Hanukkah, Purim, Passover, and Shavuot)

Jewish Museum (Jewish museum in Camden & Finchley; look at Education and Links sections)

Jewish Net ('global Jewish information network')

Judaism 101 (wealth of information including Glossary & 'Ask the Rabbi, website by 'Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America')

Lazer's Talmud Torah Center for Basic Jewish Education (religion studies for young Jews about the basic ideas of Judaism & commandments regarding tzitzis, charity, mezuzah and head covering – but not by a Rabbi and not fully detailed)

Lubavitch UK (UK headquarters in Stoke Newington; note the 7 Noachide laws)

Reform Synagogues of Great Britain (explains 'reform' Judaism and provides information & links)

Torah Tots (downloadable material for children and teachers)

Two Candles Burn (Songs for Jewish festivals)

Tzedek (a Jewish overseas development and educational charity based in the UK)

United Synagogue Agency for Jewish Education (umbrella for mainstream 'Orthodox' Synagogues in UK and its education agency; addresses & contacts for Synagogues)

Virtual Jerusalem (newspaper type website on issues in Judaism)

Window on the Wall (text explains importance of western wall to Jews, with live pictures)