

Key websites for RE teachers

Artchive website for worldwide art

Articles of Faith Ltd leading source for purchase of artefacts and other resources

BBC Religious Education GCSE Bitsize excellent links to RE related material

British Humanist Association secular humanism explained; informative section for teachers and on ethical issues from BHA perspective

Culham College Institute Anglican charitable trust (Church of England) promoting RE, collective worship, resources, recruitment and research; useful RE broadcast/transmission schedule

EFTRE \(European Forum for Teachers of Religious Education\) European perspectives on RE

Farmington Trust Grant awarding trust for RE teachers

Interfaith Calendar Interfaith festival calendar from USA

Interfaith Network works to build good relations between the different religious communities in the UK at both national and local levels

Links to Religious Studies Sites a search engine on most aspects of Religion & Spirituality

National Gallery useful for Western European Art and RE, especially for paintings relating to Christ, the Crucifixion or the Nativity

OFSTED reports relating to quality of RE, collective worship, spiritual, moral, social, cultural education in schools and nationally

QCA - Qualifications & Curriculum Authority straight to the religious education section for the latest guidance and information from QCA

RE Directory one stop for all matters related to religious education

REfIT \(Information Technology in Religious Education\) Best site on IT in RE

Religious Education and Moral Education Database (Strathclyde University resource guide with wide range of resources, especially good for Glossary of religious terms with sound, pictures of religious art and artefacts)

RE and Environment Programme \(REEP\) issues, ideas, resources for RE and collective worship

Religious Tolerance Ontario Consultants website claiming to promote religious tolerance

REonline (incorporates the site) most comprehensive website for RE professionals, with excellent links to the finest selected sites

Hackney SACRE – working with teachers to promote good religious education

RE Today promoting RE in schools; resources and publications (formerly CEM – Christian Education Movement)

RE-Quest a Christian website ‘for teaching about Christianity in RE’

RE-XS \(Religious Education Exchange Service\) excellent RE site for teachers with extensive links to other good RE-related sites

SHAP Calendar of Religious Festivals for ordering the best known UK educational festival calendar

Support for RE from Charitable Trusts from the RE Directory website

The National Society \(Church of England\) for information on the National Society, RE centres, resources, publications

Teachernet DfES site providing guidance and resources for teaching Religious Education

Topmarks site organised by teachers – includes RE section

Visiting places of worship Virtual tours and resources from the RE-XS site

Virtual Teacher Centre the Religious Education section of the national website which aims to promote excellence