

Good practice in religious education promoting community cohesion
Focus: the Mosque, Prayer & the Muslim Community

Thursday 9th October 2008

9:30am - 3.30pm

Suleymaniye Mosque, 212-216 Kingsland Road, Dalston, E2 8AX

Target audience: RE subject leaders & those identified with RE responsibilities in a team

Course leaders: Karl D'Cruz (Hackney RE/ SACRE Adviser)

& Rachel Bowerman (Enfield RE Adviser)

PLEASE NOTE: book a place via Karl D'Cruz:

Email: karl.dacruz@learningtrust.co.uk

Phone: 07967 124 973

or Fax: 020 8461 5361

KEY OBJECTIVES:

- How can Agreed Syllabus RE promote an exploration of the significance of religion in the life of the individual and in the local and global community?
- How can the subject leader promote pupils' encounters with religion through visitors and visits to places for worship?

Course outline and purpose to:

- model and promote good practice in the use of visits and visitors for teaching and learning in RE
- launch information sheets for an RE subject leader handbook
- launch revised units of the SACRE Scheme of Work, and accompanying teaching and learning resources, which include planning for visits and visitors
- extend awareness of ways in which RE can make a significant contribution to community cohesion
- extend teachers' subject knowledge of the Agreed Syllabus Programmes of Study at KS 1 and KS 2

TDA Core professional standards to be addressed: C15, C16, C 26, C37

COST: No charge because this training is commissioned by Hackney SACRE to support the implementation of the new Agreed Syllabus